

Terms and Conditions

- Pupils are required to follow the rules and conditions of the school.
- If any pupil is unable to attend a class, they must notify us by phone/text on 07739097350 or alternatively by email to info@elibah.dance
- Fees are paid in advance and within 1 week of invoice date. A 10% surcharge will be added to any "late fees". Online payments/transfers are only accepted.
- The school cannot undertake any responsibility for any money or items of value lost whilst in Elibah School of Dance's care.
- The school reserves the right to ask for a pupil to be removed from a class for any of the following reasons: Should a pupil not respond to training, for misbehaviour, or for any breach of the school conditions or policies. Pupils are expected to behave in a polite, respectful and caring manner towards teachers and other pupils. We will follow the following procedure: Strike 1: Verbal warning, Strike 2: Written warning, Strike 3: Final warning, Strike 4: Removal from class with no refund given.
- Students must make every effort to arrive punctually to classes.
- Parents are only permitted to watch classes with the agreement of the school.
- All pupils must wear the correct uniform for classes. No jewellery must be worn. No Chewing Gum. Hair must be tied back for all lessons – and in a bun, if possible, for ballet/pointe classes.
- Mobile phones must be turned off or switched to silent and left in bags. All property brought to class is left at the owners' risk.
- Elibah School of Dance cannot be held responsible for classes being cancelled by venues due to extreme circumstances (i.e. severe weather conditions/pandemics). In such event, no refund will be given, nor the class be rescheduled.
- Elibah School of Dance cannot be held responsible for any holiday camps/workshops being cancelled due to unforeseen circumstances (i.e. severe weather conditions/pandemics). In such event, the school will offer a credit, which can be used at another holiday camp/workshop in the future.
- If Elibah School of Dance makes the decision to cancel class due to illness/unforeseen circumstances, an alternative class will be arranged, where possible. If a pupil is unable to attend a rescheduled class for any reason, no refund will be given. Where an alternative class is not possible, fees will be deducted off the following term's fees.
- If a child is unable to attend a class, due to sickness, injury or another event, no refund or credit will be given for their absence.
- Regular attendance is required prior to examinations/shows/performances. Pupils must contact Miss Kali if they are unable to attend a class. In some circumstances failure to attend regularly will mean that your child will not be able to participate in the event.
- Photography and video use will be used for business use only, such as, on Elibah School of Dance's social media, website or for any other advertising purposes. Should you not wish for your child to be included in any photography, please make it clear on the Data Consent Form.
- Elibah School of Dance will hold personal data about pupils. Elibah School of Dance will ONLY share pupil data with examining bodies, such as the ISTD, Acrobatic Arts, RAD, competitions and performance engagements, when permission has been given. Data will NEVER be shared with third parties in any other circumstance.
- Safe Touch Policy - During dance training, some physical contact may be deemed necessary between staff and students. Physical instruction which involves safe touch towards certain areas of training is sometimes essential to aid effective teaching and learning i.e. awareness of correct muscle usage, spotting in Acro, correct posture and line.
- Our school charges an annual membership fee of £35. This fee will cover the cost of additional training for my team, general company running costs e.g. music licensing, insurance, dance examining board membership fees, equipment and prop purchases/maintenance etc. If someone joins us part way through a year, they will be charged pro-rata. This is applicable to all students, including our adult dancers. Then the annual fee will be charged to yourself every September for the new upcoming academic year. All these areas will improve your child's experience with us.

- All trials cost the same price as a usual class fee. This is to cover the cost of admin before and after, as well as contributing towards the teacher/studio costs of the class.
- If a student decides they wish to stop attending classes with Elibah School of Dance (evening and weekend classes at Kings Academy Venue, Binfield Community Centre, Floreat Montague Park and any private classes), A full terms notice (usually between 10-13 weeks, depending on the term length) is required. If notice is not given, you will still be charged for the following term's fees.
- PAYG Adult classes – if you book on to a class and are no longer able to attend, no refund will be given. If you give at least one weeks' notice, we will consider moving the booking to another class, within the same term.
- If a child decides they no longer wish to be involved in any performances or exams after payment has been made, no refund will be given.
- The School reserves the right to amend or alter the terms and conditions of the school at any time.
- The School reserves the right to amend or alter the fees and classes as and when necessary.
